On October 26, 1954, [redacted] (whose identity should be protected), [redacted] "Pittsburgh Courier," a national Negro weekly newspaper, which is published in Pittsburgh, Pa., furnished to SA [redacted] a copy of the October 30, 1954 edition of the above paper which [redacted] identified as the New York edition. This paper bore the headline, "Race Riots Shake London." [redacted] advised that this headline referred to a story which appeared on page one and was continued on page four, and which was written by the above captioned subject. [redacted] stated that this was the first article written by HARRINGTON which has appeared in the "Courier" for quite some time.

The article referred to by [redacted] captioned, "Violence Hits West Indians In English Capital," bears the byline, "By OLLIE HARRINGTON (Special to the Courier)," is as follows:

"LONDON, England - Despite the cloak of silence which blanketed the story of a violent attack upon West Indian Negroes in the Baynes Street area of London, details of the incident have finally become a matter of general public knowledge.

"In spite of determined official attempts to minimize the extent and seriousness of the disorders, the evidence indicates Editor's Note: Oliver W. Harrington, author of the famous "Bootsie" cartoon and Courier war correspondent, flew from Paris to London to get the story on race trouble in the English capital. That a race riot of major proportions shook this city in August.

"According to on-the-spot witnesses, 400 to 500 shrieking rioters set fire to a house occupied by Negroes, bombed and smashed windows in other Negro residences, completely smashed a large car belonging to an American Negro GI stationed at a nearby air base, and severely beat other Negroes trapped in narrow Baynes Street.

Letter to Director

PG 100-12353

"The following day, Baynes Street, located in the Camden Town section of London, was again invaded by whites.

"MOST OF the racists were youths who attacked Negroes passing through the area with bottles, iron clubs and bars. Many of the victims suffered serious injuries.

"The violence ensued a third day (Sunday, Aug. 29) when whites swarmed out of closing pubs in the early afternoon to continue their beating of unwary Negroes in the area.

"The riots reached a crescendo that night when the local toughs, now reinforced by thugs from North London, Brixton and Lewisham swarmed into Baynes Street.

"Despite the police force 'on duty' in the street, an explosion ripped the home of a Negro family and the structure burst into flames. Rioters also entered the house, smashed windows, furniture, pulled out electrical fixtures and mixed 'business' with 'pleasure' by pulling out coin-loaded gas meters.

"AT LEAST one other bomb, poorly aimed, exploded in the street and burned itself out while fire fighters fought to bring the blazing house under control.

"When 'order' was established, it was revealed that police had arrested several Negroes and two white women who had 'allegedly been seen with colored men.'

"Not one white rioter was detained, although police had heavily patrolled the area at all times during the series of riots.

"POLICE SAID the incidents were merely 'ordinary' street fights which occur 'frequently' in Camden Town.

Letter to Director

PG 100-12353

"Police further state that the story of the bombing was just 'idle talk,' but added that the fire was '... Yes, bit of a mystery, that really.'

"London's daily papers failed to report the riots."

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the Secretary of State, New York State Department of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1962, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "a Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

[redacted] a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the [redacted] Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) [redacted] It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. b7C

[redacted] another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by [redacted] a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.
